GCI brings highly anticipated TiVo® service to Kenai and Soldotna

Anchorage, Alaska - GCI now has TiVo's most advanced home television solution available in Kenai and Soldotna.

"We were the first to launch the latest TiVo interface in North America this summer, and we're excited to expand the offering to both Kenai and Soldotna," said Paul Landes, senior vice president, consumer services. "With this new service, customers on the Peninsula can now record up to six shows at the same time using only one set-top box."

GCI TV powered by TiVo's award-winning user interface, makes it easy for customers to access and discover live programming and Video on Demand through its personalized recommendations and powerful search and discovery capabilities. The experience is further enhanced with the TiVo Mini, a low-cost option for viewing content in additional rooms, and TiVo Stream, a device that effortlessly delivers video over Wi-Fi to tablets and smartphones on the home network, enabling customers to take their shows with them on the go.

"TV fans all over the world are increasingly demanding a superior television viewing experience throughout the entire home and on any screen," said Tom Elam, TiVo vice president and general manager, U.S. Service Provider Business. "We are pleased that GCI turned to TiVo to make this advanced television platform a reality for its customers."

GCI currently offers TiVo in Anchorage, Chugiak, Girdwood, Eagle River, Wasilla, Palmer, Juneau, Fairbanks, Eielson AFB, Fort Wainwright, North Pole, Ketchikan, Kodiak, Kenai and Soldotna.

GCI is the top provider of voice, data and video services in Alaska, through which consumers can experience entertainment everywhere. GCI is also the leading provider of communications services to enterprise customers, particularly large enterprise customers with complex data networking needs.
